

LOOKING FOR A FEW GOOD GARDENERS!

THE HIGH DESERT & MOUNTAIN

Master Composter Training!

February 21, 2009

Yucca Valley Sr. Center / Community Center
57088 29 Palms Highway
Yucca Valley

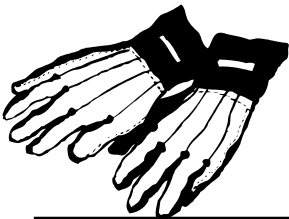

The High Desert & Mountain Master Composters are looking for interested citizens who would like to become "Master Composters" as part of a program offered by the Mojave Desert & Mountain Recycling JPA & the Town of Yucca Valley & City of 29 Palms.

Here's what you'll receive:

- ◆ Approximately eight hours of FREE training (9 am - 5 pm) about how composting works and different composting techniques.
- ◆ Valuable Composting/Gardening Handbooks & Fact Sheets on:
 - Greencycling Options
 - Uses for Fresh Mulch
 - Uses for Composted Greenwaste
 - Vermicomposting (worms!)
 - Container Gardening
 - Native Plants
 - Water Conservation
 - Useful Gardening Ideas
- ◆ The opportunity to meet and network with other local gardening enthusiasts.
- ◆ Fun! Make new friends with other High Desert residents who share a common interest in gardening.

Here's what we would like back from you:

- ◆ Volunteer some of your time to help educate your friends, neighbors, and other members of the public and about the benefits of composting and how to reduce yard waste. Any questions? Call Stefanie Ritter 760-369-7212 , or Shirley Hibbetts at (760) 952-3572. e-mail SHibbetts@Verizon.net.

YES! I'm interested in becoming a Master Composter. Please enroll me for the February 21, 2009 training at Yucca Valley senior Center/Community Center 9 - 5 pm.
